Expensify Expands Global Support for Company Cards, Languages, Billing, and Reimbursements

June 25, 2025

The financial superapp now supports corporate cards from thousands more banks worldwide, alongside a handful of other major international upgrades

PORTLAND, Ore.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 25, 2025-- Expensify, Inc. (Nasdaq: EXFY), the financial management superapp for expenses, travel, and corporate cards, today announced a sweeping expansion of international support across its platform. The launch includes support for corporate card import from 10,000+ more banks worldwide, multilingual capabilities, Euro-based billing, international reimbursements in New Expensify, and beta access to the Expensify Card across the UK, EU, and soon Canada.

These updates mark a milestone in Expensify's global strategy, enabling businesses across the world to manage expenses and cards faster and more seamlessly than ever before—all within a single platform.

"Now, companies everywhere can handle expenses, cards, reimbursements, and more — entirely within Expensify," said David Barrett, founder and CEO of Expensify.

Highlights of today's international expansion:

- Expanded company card support with 10,000+ new banks around the world integrated for seamless import and reconciliation
- Language localization beyond English and Spanish in New Expensify, with support for 10 more languages including French, German, Italian, and Japanese
- Euro-based billing, so members can pay for their Expensify subscriptions in Euros (in addition to USD, GBP, AUD, and NZD)
- Global reimbursement support to withdraw from business bank accounts in USD, CAD, GBP, EUR & AUD, and deposit into bank accounts in (almost) any country — right in New Expensify
- Expensify Card beta now live in the UK and EU, with Canadian support on the way

"This is a big day. It's no exaggeration to say everything we've done for years has been in preparation for this — bringing you the fastest way to do your expenses, anywhere in the world." Barrett added.
