SAN FRANCISCO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Expensify, the world's premier preaccounting platform, launched its new podcast "Live Rich, Have Fun, Save the World" that highlights the success stories and learnings of trailblazers from across industries so that listeners are inspired to take positive action. The podcast is co-hosted by Expensify founder and CEO, David Barrett, and former heavy-metal frontman and Expensify expert, Monte Barnard.

"The purpose of this podcast is to reorient the way society defines success around three life goals: Live Rich, Have Fun, and Save the World," says Barrett. "Live Rich encourages you to pursue financial freedom and helps you design a lifestyle to enjoy it. Have Fun challenges you to stretch beyond the 'easy fun' of planning typical activities to the 'hard fun' of creating truly baller experiences. The last life goal, Save the World, is a major focus of this first season in which we'll discuss different approaches to societal issues such as equality, voting rights, and racial inclusivity."

The first season features guests such as:

- Eric Ries - entrepreneur, author of The New York Times bestseller “The Lean Startup,” and founder and CEO of the Long-Term Stock Exchange.
- CJ McCollum - shooting guard for the Portland Trail Blazers with interests ranging from journalism to philanthropy and a personal wine label.
- DJ Mick - world-renowned DJ, speaker, investor, and entrepreneur who has collaborated with superstar musicians including Jay-Z, Kanye West, and Prince.
