EXPENSIFY ANNOUNCES Q3 2023 RESULTS

Interchange derived from the Expensify Card grew to $3.1 million, an increase of 65% as compared to the same period last year.

PORTLAND, Ore.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--November 7, 2023-- Expensify, Inc. (Nasdaq: EXFY), a payments superapp that helps individuals and businesses around the world simplify the way they manage money across expenses, corporate cards and bills, today released a letter to shareholders from Founder and CEO David Barrett alongside results for its quarter ended September 30, 2023.

A Message From Our Founder

This was a challenging quarter, but I am happy to share that we are trimming costs – which should improve profitability for years to come – and we are making great strides with our SEM, SEO, and overall conversion optimization efforts.

Additionally, the competitive environment is shifting back in our favor. Previously-free competitors are announcing expensive pricing plans compared to our cost of $6/employee (versus $15/employee elsewhere).

(We have traditionally presented ARPU on an active-user basis, where we charge about $18 for each employee actively using the product. But only about 1/3rd of employees are active in a given month. So on an apples-to-apples, per-employee basis, we're actually more like $6/employee.)

On top of clearer skies coming into view, this quarter was one of our best ever for product development. Our engineering team -- supercharged by over 2,000 open source developers -- has made phenomenal progress on building out New Expensify into a financial superapp that does all of:

- · WhatsApp-style DM and group chat with anybody having an email address or phone number, in or out of your contact book
- Venmo-style request/send money, but with integrated receipt scanning and distance requests
- Splitwise-style bill splitting, but with group chat, receipt scanning, and currency conversion
- · Slack-style business chat, but without all of the confusing ways to invite someone: just invite them and they are in
- All married with Expensify-style real-time expense management, simplified for a largely untapped VSB and SMB market

Whoever you are and whatever you're doing, big company or small, employee or boss, for work or for play – if it involves moving money, New Expensify will get the job done the same way, with the same app, and for one low monthly price. We still have work to do to bring that dream to reality, but it's getting close. With luck, our long-awaited migration of Expensify Classic to New Expensify should be actively underway by this time next quarter.

Ultimately, I believe the whole industry is still in a challenging environment. Instability and high interest rates seem likely here to stay for a while. But in the long run, this just reinforces the pillars of our product strategy:

- 1. Expand the addressable market by reaching for the 99% of global businesses who are on the sidelines.
- 2. Lower our cost of sale with viral lead generation from chat/P2P consumer features.
- 3. Increase our value to the customer with a financial superapp of many use cases for a single price.

We're not done yet. But all the major technical, regulatory, compliance, and product design challenges are behind us. Soon, we expect Expensify will offer a product competitive with:

- Ramp's $15/employee/mo value

- Slack's $12.50/employee/mo value
- Bill's $94/mo value
- ... along with invoicing, payroll, and travel management

All for an average price of $6 per employee per month. It's an admittedly ambitious vision. But it's looking better and better every day, and I couldn't be more excited.

-david Founder and CEO of Expensify

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

In addition to financial measures prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), we provide certain non-GAAP financial measures, including adjusted EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA margin, non-GAAP net loss, and free cash flow.

We believe our non-GAAP financial measures are useful in evaluating our business, measuring our performance, identifying trends affecting our business, formulating business plans and making strategic decisions. Accordingly, we believe that these non-GAAP financial measures provide useful information to investors and others in understanding and evaluating our results of operations in the same manner as our management team. These non-GAAP financial measures are presented for supplemental informational purposes only, should not be considered a substitute for financial information presented in accordance with GAAP, and may be different from similarly titled metrics or measures presented by other companies. Non-GAAP financial measures have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation or as substitutes for financial information presented under GAAP. There are a number of limitations related to the use of non-GAAP financial measures versus comparable financial measures determined under GAAP. For example, other companies in our industry may calculate these non-GAAP financial measures differently or may use other measures to evaluate their performance. All of these limitations could reduce the usefulness of these non-GAAP financial measures as analytical tools. Investors are encouraged to review the related GAAP financial measures and the reconciliations of these non-GAAP financial measures to their most directly comparable GAAP financial measures and to not rely on any single financial measure to evaluate our business. A reconciliation of each non-GAAP financial measure to the most directly comparable financial measure stated in accordance with GAAP is at the end of this press release.

Adjusted EBITDA. We define adjusted EBITDA as net income from operations excluding provision for income taxes, interest and other expenses, net, depreciation and amortization and stock-based compensation.

Non-GAAP net loss. We define non-GAAP net loss as net income (loss) from operations in accordance with US GAAP excluding stock-based compensation.

Free cash flow. We define Free cash flow as net cash (used in) provided by operating activities excluding changes in settlement assets and settlement liabilities, which represent funds held for customers and customer funds in transit, respectively, reduced by the purchases of property and equipment and software development costs.

The tables at the end of the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements provide reconciliations to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure to each of these non-GAAP financial measures.

Forward-Looking Statements

Forward-looking statements in this press release, or made during the earnings call, which are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1955. These statements include statements regarding our strategy, future financial condition, future operations, future cash flow, projected costs, prospects, plans, objectives of management and expected market growth, product developments and their potential impact, the amount and timing of any share repurchases and our stock-based compensation estimates and involve known and unknown risks that are difficult to predict. Such forward-looking statements are necessarily based upon estimates and assumptions that, while considered reasonable by us and our management, are inherently uncertain. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include, but are not limited to: the impact on inflation on us and our members; our borrowing costs have and may continue to increase as a result of increases in interest rates; our expectations regarding our financial performance and future operating performance; our ability to attract and retain members, expand usage of our platform, sell subscriptions to our platform and convert individuals and organizations into paying customers; the timing and success of new features, integrations, capabilities and enhancements by us, or by competitors to their products, or any other changes in the competitive landscape of our market; the amount and timing of operating expenses and capital expenditures that we may incur to maintain and expand our business and operations to remain competitive; the sufficiency of our cash, cash equivalents and investments to meet our liquidity needs; our ability to make required payments under and to comply with the various requirements of our current and future indebtedness; our cash flows, the prevailing stock prices, general economic and market conditions and other considerations that could affect the specific timing, price and size of repurchases under our stock repurchase program or our ability to fund any stock repurchases; geopolitical tensions, including the war in Ukraine and the escalating conflict in Israel, Gaza and surrounding areas; our ability to effectively manage our exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; the increased expenses associated with being a public company; the size of our addressable markets, market share and market trends; anticipated trends. developments and challenges in our industry, business and the highly competitive markets in which we operate; our expectations regarding our income tax liabilities and the adequacy of our reserves; our ability to effectively manage our growth and expand our infrastructure and maintain our corporate culture; our ability to identify, recruit and retain skilled personnel, including key members of senior management; the safety, affordability and convenience of our platform and our offerings; our ability to successfully defend litigation brought against us; our ability to successfully identify, manage and integrate any existing and potential acquisitions of businesses, talent, technologies or intellectual property; general economic conditions in either domestic or international markets; our protections against security breaches,
